

Sinclair Broadcasting should not be allowed to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves for free, and is OBLIGATED BY LAW to serve the public interest. When large companies control the airwaves, it is a situation that is not serving the people in our "democracy" but rather the interests of a big corporation. Individual stations should focus on news that presents both sides of an issue, so that people have the information to make their own decisions, instead of being fed the opinions of a few self-interest corporations.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
